Phil^a 16. Jan. 1827

My dear Wife;

Yesterday I wrote you a hastily something as I was going to dine with Judge Hemphill. He married into the Coleman family one of whom is going to England with him; - not however the person who was yesterday present. Mr Hemphill is a very agreeable plain woman I tried to persuade her to go to Eng^d with her Husband but she has a tremendous fear of the water.
 Mrs Coleman the Iron Turners man's wife is very handsome and engaged much about England. - The Rev Mr Boyd who was present is quite intimate with her.
 Judge Hemphill looks forward to the period of his becoming acquainted with Lord Goun-ville & Lord Kenyon with great solicitude I have given him letters to both these noble men also to Mr Wigram & J. W. Marriott.
 In the evening we went to a Mr Camphells

There were The Rev Messrs Redell Ayede Cotte & Allen: and a number of Ladies.
— Nothing was said or done ~~of~~ any great note. —

This morning Ad Mrs Jewells the Grandmother of the Boys who are going to Ohio sent me $50 this with many smaller donations, will swell the next Saturdays Proceeds to some like the last.

The presents of Books are very valuable Tell Mr Sparrow I got his long letter while at Mr Hemphills yesterday. It gave me great comfort. I have just such a man in view as he describes.
I should have gone to Myork today but have been prevented. I trust I shall be off tomorrow at 12 noon. —

I have written so many letters today & seen so much company that I am quite Tired and can hardly tell you how much I think of you & the Children. O may God bless you all & make you happier than I am!

Mr & Mrs Allen are exceedingly kind to me
This man has been a second Marriott & she a second Marfan Lane to my cause.
May God reward them!

My sore to the finger & skin & ankle have not gotten well but are better Remember to pray for Your faithful

Thrs.
